

IDX1

Introduction to exam

From Course Description

Evaluation

The evaluation of the course is based on mandatory course work (50%) and the oral exam (50%) at the end of the course. Only students with approved course work will be allowed to attend the exam.

Examination

The exam is oral and it takes 20 minutes per student. The exam is in two parts. First part is a presentation and discussion of selected parts of the course work. Second part is drawn question from the theory of the course.

Exam Time Frame

- 20 minutes in total / student
- 4 minutes
  - voting and entering/exiting/picking question
- 8 minutes
  - Course assignment
    - Presentation and discussion
- 8 minutes
  - Theory question
    - Presentation and discussion

Course Assignment

- 8 minutes
- Start by telling about the course assignment
- We'll then ask questions in this and other areas of your course assignment

Theory Question

- 8 minutes
- Start by answering the question yourself
- We'll then ask questions

Example of a question

Question 2

Emotional Design

- Present the 3 layer model (Ortony et al, 2005)
- Give an example of an interaction design, using the 3-layer model
- Explain the terms anthropomorphism and zoomorphism and how these terms can be used in interaction design

FAQ

- When can we get the exam questions?
- Can I bring my notes?
- Do I need my laptop?
- Who is the examiner?
- Will he / she ask questions?
- Am I in trouble then?
- Will you ask me difficult questions?

Anything?

